Biodiversity within reach

“Le Retour à la Terre” - Return to the Earth, a true treasure trove of biodiversity, invites you to discover the pleasures of your senses.

You will be surprised by this festival of fruits, vegetables, grains, cheeses, breads..., whose tastes, colors, shapes, smells... will amaze and seduce you.

Our commitment: to make organic products affordable to everyone.

In addition to everyday shopping:

- heirloom fruits and vegetables, fruits of our own orchard in Normandy
- family farm products
- many products sold under the labels Nature & Progrès, Demeter, and Fair Trade.

- More than a hundred products in bulk (cereal, pasta, dried vegetables and fruits, cookies...)

And also a cornucopia of

- different honeys and jams
- seeds to help you fulfill your dream of returning to the earth!

“Le Retour à la Terre” - Return to the Earth is also a friendly place for exchanging information: tastings where you can meet growers, book signings, lectures...
